

Uniform Embroidery Service Closure FAQs

Here's everything you need to know about the closure of the Uniform Embroidery Service.

What has changed?

We have made the decision to close our Uniform Embroidery Service. The service will end on 12 February 2019, but rest assured that we will fulfil all orders made before then. After this date, you will still be able to order embroidered uniform directly from our supplier through their new service, My Clothing, which offers the same great value and support for schools through its own donation scheme.

Can I still buy embroidered school uniforms from Tesco?

No, Tesco will no longer provide embroidered school uniforms. After 12 February 2019, you'll still be able to order embroidered uniform directly from our supplier through their new service, My Clothing, which offers the same great value and support for schools through its own donation scheme. Tesco is working closely with this supplier to ensure a simple transition for schools and parents who wish to use this service going forward.

Can I still buy plain school uniforms from Tesco?

Yes – we'll continue to sell a wide range of plain school uniforms in-store. You can view the plain school uniforms range online now. Remember, with our 100-day guarantee, you can kit your kids out with confidence.

The new service from My Clothing will also offer a range of plain school uniform.

Will F&F supply clothing to the new service?

We're happy to confirm that F&F will still supply our best-selling high quality uniform lines to My Clothing. My Clothing will also be working with other clothing providers in the future.

Will you still be offering Clubcard points on the new service?

No – Clubcard points will not be available on My Clothing orders.

Have you shared any customer data with the new service provider?

No customer data has been shared with My Clothing.

Why haven't you given customers more notice of this closure?

We've tried to give as much notice as possible. The alternative provider, My Clothing, is up and running, so schools and parents will still have access to the service.

I'm a Delivery Saver customer, will I receive free delivery on these orders?

No – My Clothing will determine their own postage costs on the new service. Please visit My Clothing for more information.

Will schools continue to receive the 5% donation on sales?

Yes, for at least the first year of service, My Clothing will continue to offer this.

CEC ONLY: I'm a Tesco colleague, will I continue to receive my colleague discount on these orders?
No – Tesco colleague discount will not be available on My Clothing orders [www.myclothing.com]
